

Celebrating our team's journeys and achievements

Alexandra Barnard, Business Manager, Hays UK&I

What was your background before joining Hays?

“I worked within childcare for nine years and loved it, but financially, it just wasn’t viable for my long-term career. Moving into education recruitment was ideal, as I still felt I was making an impact on children’s lives, but from a different angle.”

How has Hays helped you towards success in your career?

“Within just 2.5 years I received three promotions, and I’ve had so many great opportunities, including getting to be a panellist at the Hays International Women’s Day event to represent the LGBTQ+ community.”

What excites you most about your future at Hays?

“The ability to earn uncapped commission based on the level of work that I put in, the potential for further career progression, and the ability to take on new areas of work as I continue to grow over the next few years.”

What advice would you give to someone considering this career?

“Recruitment can be challenging as it requires dedication, resilience and excellent time management, but it is also extremely rewarding if you like the idea of being able to run your own business. If you’re willing to stick with it and put the hard work in, it’s worth it.”
