

Celebrating our team's journeys and achievements

Sager Sabharwal, Business Director, Hays UK&I

What was your background before joining Hays?

“I was born and raised in the UK but worked in India for a long time, eventually deciding to relocate back home and join my family. I wanted to carve a new career for myself, and that’s where Hays came in. I’ve been here ever since, and that was a decade ago!”

How has Hays helped you towards success in your career?

“At Hays, you are in control of the direction you want to steer your career in. I started here with next to no recruitment experience and have been given opportunities to move upwards. The training was top-notch and definitely set me up to achieve my goals.”

What excites you most about your future at Hays?

“Here at Hays, we are a meritocracy, so you are in control of the direction you want to steer your career in. I am excited to see how far I can push myself, to continue to improve myself, and to help others around me improve, too.”

What advice would you give to someone considering this career?

“Do your research. Try to speak to people who have worked in the field. Recruitment can be fun, challenging and rewarding, but it requires consistency, tons of hard work, resilience, and an unwavering positive mindset. If you have those traits, it could be for you!”
